The Tariff Bill Passes the Senate By This Vote.

THE BILL WILL BE PUSHED

McKinley Anxious to Get Off On His Summer Vacation.

CONFERENCE MEET IMMEDIATELY.

Washington, July 8.—By the decisive vote 38 to 28 the tariff bill passed the Senate shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday.

The floor and galleries of the Senate chamber were crowded by those anxious to witness the closing scenes. The main interest was centered in the final vote and aside from this there was little dramatic character in the debate.

The early part of the day was spent on amendments of comparative minor importance, the debate branching into financial and anti-trust channels. By 4 o'clock the last amendment was disposed of and the final vote began. There were many interruptions as the pairs were arranged, and then, at 4:55 the Vice President arose and announced the passage of the bill, yeas 38, nays 28. There was no demonstration, but a few scattered handclaps given as the crowd dispersed.

The vote in detail was as follows: Yeas—Allison, Baker, Burrows, Carter, Clark, Cullum, Davis, Deboe, Ekins, Fairbanks, Forsaker, Gallinger, Hale, Hanna, Hawley, Jones (of Nevada), Lodge, McBride, McKim, McMillan, Mantle, Mason, Morrill, Nelson, Penrose, Perkins, Platt, (of Connecticut), Platt (of New York), Pritchard, Proctor, Quay, Sewell, Shoup, Spooner, Warren, Wellington, Wetmore, Wilson—38.

Nays—Bacon, Bate, Berry, Caffery, Cannon, Chilton, Clay, Cook, Fulkner, Gray, Harris (of Kansas), Jones, (of Arkansas), Kennedy, Lindsay, Malory, Martin, Mills, Mitchell, Morgan, Pasco, Pettus, Rawling, Roach, Turner, Turpie, Vest, Walshaw, White—28.

Eight Republicans were paired for the bill and eight Democrats against it. The senators present and not voting were Populists Allen, Butler, Heitfeld, Kyle, Stewart, and silver Republicans Teller and Pettigrew.

Following the passage of the bill a resolution was agreed to, asking the house for a conference and Senators Aldrich, Platt (of Connecticut), Burrows, Jones (of Nevada), Vest Jones (of Arkansas), and White were named as conferees on the part of the senate.

The bill as it goes back to the house has 274 amendments of various degrees of importance, which must be reconciled before the two branches of congress meet.

McKinley in a Hurry.

Washington, D. C., July 8.—President McKinley is taking an active part in pushing the tariff bill. He is very anxious to go away next week for his summer vacation, but cannot leave until the bill is passed. The bill will probably be ready by that time.

The Tariff Conference.
Washington, D. C., July 8.—The conferees from the Senate and House will take up the tariff bill immediately and hope to finish their work this week and have the bill ready for its final passage.

NOT THIS TERM.

McKinley Will Delay His Message on the Currency Question.

All Things Must Give Way to the Tariff; That Must Be Pushed.

Washington, July 8.—President McKinley has concluded not to send any financial message to Congress this term. He is afraid that such a message might prejudice the tariff bill.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Another Fatal Coal Oil Stove Accident.

Springfield, O., July 8.—Nellie and Katie, the two daughters of David Harshman, of this city, died this morning as the result of a coal oil stove explosion. Mr. Harshman is one of the wealthy citizens of this city, and the community is greatly shocked over the terrible accident.

AN UNFORTUNATE MAN.

John Brewer Has Two Fits in One Day.

John Brewer, of Evansville, who had a fit a few days ago at Eleventh and Broadway, had two more this forenoon.

The first was on South Third near the "News" office. A couple of hours later he met Officer Jones, told him he felt another one coming on, and asked to be taken to the city hall. When the steps were reached he was overcome by another, and was placed on the floor.

Marshall Collins will have the man sent to Evansville this afternoon.

BUTCHER WAGON.

A Street Car Hits It From Behind.

A South Third street motor collided with Mr. Louis Petter's butcher wagon this morning in front of Riecke's ice factory.

The wagon had started across the track when the car came up in the rear and struck it a terrific blow. Mr. Petter and another man, who were occupants of the vehicle, were thrown out and painfully bruised, although they had a close call. Sausage, meat and other things were scattered all over the street. The street car was not damaged.

OPINION FILED.

Judge Bishop's Decision of the Cow Ordinance Placed to Record.

Judge Bishop's decision in the cow case, rendered a few weeks ago, has been filed in the circuit court for record. It contains over 1000 words, and as stated at the time it was rendered, Judge Bishop decides that the law is unconstitutional, and orders the case against Joseph Potter, which was taken as a test case, dismissed.

EIGHT DEATHS TODAY

From the Heat in the State of Kentucky.

Five Negroes Die in Owensboro in Three Days.

Louisville, July 8.—The death rate from the heat in Kentucky is terrible. Eight deaths are reported today from various parts of the state, while five negroes have died from heat in Owensboro in three days.

MARSHAL TO THE FRONT.

Bruce Warren Wanted a Whole Car Load of Cattle.

In Jail in Texas For Complicity in a Big Steal.

Bruce Warren, a son of County Assessor Ted Warren, of Marshall county, is under arrest in Texas on a charge of stealing a car load of cattle.

Warren is about 21 years of age, and went out to Texas two or three years ago. It is said that he and another young man stole a car load of cattle, shipped it to New Orleans and sold it. The latter was arrested, tried and sentenced to four years, but Warren escaped and was located about 150 miles from where the steal took place.

He was captured, carried back, and is now in jail awaiting trial.

COUNCIL MEETING.

One Will Probably Be Held Tomorrow.

The Mayor Says He Will Take His Time in Examining the Sewerage Contract.

The council will not meet tonight. It may meet tomorrow, but this is not certain.

City Attorney Husbands drew the contract yesterday, and submitted it to the sewerage committee of the council. Mr. Lynn White, to whom the contract was given, was given the contract this morning, and took it to his attorney, Judge J. W. Bloodfield, to be examined.

Mayor Yeiser stated to the Sun this morning that after the others finished the contract, he intended to give it a thorough consideration himself, as $60,000 or more was involved, and there was no need to hurry.

FISCAL COURT.

Steam Heating Question Not Yet Settled.

Fiscal court spent this afternoon allowing claims, none of which are of any great importance.

This afternoon the question of heating the court house by steam was again taken up, and four bids were submitted. They were as follows: Pock & Hammond, hot air, $1115; El Hannan, steam, $1550; Jack Coulson, $1650; G. R. Davis, $1450. Mr. Davis' bid is the lowest, and at 3 o'clock the court was still wrangling over which one to accept.

THE GUN CLUB.

Is Arranging for a Trophy Shoot Monday.

The gun club will have the first practice shoot tomorrow afternoon at LaBelle Park, and a large number of local marksmen are expected out to participate.

Monday afternoon at the same place there will be a trophy shoot, which is being arranged by Col. T. J. Moore. An attractive program is being prepared.

Refrigerators and water coolers must be sold out regardless of cost. C. J. and see for yourself, such goods were never heard of before in this city. M. J. Jones, corner Second and Court street. 83

THE GREAT STRIKE

Grows in Numbers Each Day.

TROUBLE FEARED AT JELICO.

Many Illinois Miners Returning to Work.

THE SITUATION IN GENERAL.

The miners claim that 85 per cent. of the miners of the Pittsburgh district are now striking. United States marshals are protecting mines of the Wheeling and Lake Erie company and also the railroad of that name, as violence is feared. At Dillonville, O., strikers from nearby mines, armed with pick handles, forced the men to quit. Railroads are already confiscating coal shipped over their lines to insure the fulfillment of government mail contracts. No violence has been attempted other than the intimidation at Dillonville. The operators claim that the strike will be short-lived. President Rutherford, of the United Mine Workers, intimates that railroad employees may take a hand by refusing to handle trains loaded with non-union coal.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 8.—The mines in five towns in Ohio are now guarded by United States marshals to protect them from the strikers. The strike is growing in Pennsylvania, and nearly all the miners are idle. In parts of Illinois many mines are returning to work, and the prospects are that the strike may be a failure in that state.

Trouble Feared.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 8.—The miners are growing restless in the Jellico district and trouble is feared.

The Situation at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, July 7.—Forty-eight hours after the inauguration of the great coal miners' strike a comparison of statements from both sides engaged in the contest shows favorable results for the diggers.

Conservative estimates place the number of miners now striking in this district from 15,000 to 18,000 men, an increase of about 5,000 over yesterday's record. This leaves but from 3,000 to 6,000 men still working.

The key to the entire situation from present appearances lies in the success or defeat of the strikers in securing the co-operation of the men now working for the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company. Without these men the strike can hardly succeed, because they will be able, in a measure, to supply the demand long enough to tide over the present embarrassment.

Patrick Dolan, President of the Pittsburgh district miners, is confident that before the present week closes he will have succeeded in getting all of these men to join the ranks of the strikers, and when this result is effected the battle will be practically won, he thinks.

The operators are just as confident of success as the miners are, and tonight issued a statement claiming a large accession of men in different parts of the districts, and a heavy shipping list then issued. One thing slightly in favor of the operators is the freeing of navigation in the Monongahela river, which went into effect today. Ten million bushels of coal, which have been stacked in the pools above here awaiting this event, will be brought to this harbor at once and be available for the present demand.

HEAD CUT OFF

Terrible Death of Dan Crouch.

Run Over by an Illinois Central Train.

Dan Crouch, of Tipton, Tennessee, met a horrible fate this morning at Fulton on the Illinois Central. He was crossing the track when a train ran him down, cutting off his head, and otherwise horribly mutilating him. The remains will be shipped home tonight.

TRAMP KILLED

Unfortunate Meets His Fate on the N. C. & St. L.

Attempted to Board a North Bound Passenger Train.

Arthur Adler, a tramp whose people live at Mt. Vernon, Ill., was run over and killed by a N. C. & St. L. train last night on Wolf river about 10 o'clock.

The supposition is that Adler attempted to board the train. He was wandering about the country, and took supper at a section foreman's house. He was a young man, and up to this morning nothing had been heard from him.

Lost.
A gold cuff button with initials, T. H. on same return to this office.

BARELY ALIVE.

Is Senator Harris of Tennessee.

Washington, D. C., July 8.—Senator Harris is barely alive this morning. He failed rapidly last night. The heat has been so intense that he could not be moved from the city.

The End Near.

Washington, D. C., July 8.—1 p. m.—Senator Harris is dying. He cannot live through the afternoon.

DISTRICT PRIMARY.

Called by the Democrats for August 28.

Chairman W. A. Hartley, of Marshall county, and Chairman Edward O. Leigh, of McCracken, met yesterday and called a Democratic primary for August 28th, to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge and commonwealth's attorney of this district, comprising McCracken and Marshall counties.

The qualification of voters, where not prescribed by law, are as follows: 1st.—All persons who voted for the nominees of the Chicago convention at the November election, 1896.

2d.—All known Democrats and all persons who desire to ally themselves with and affiliate with the Democratic party.

3d.—All young men who were under twenty-one years of age at the last election and who will be legal voters at the next election, and who desire in good faith to ally themselves with and to affiliate with the Democratic party.

POLICE COURT.

Two Offenders Given the Benefit of the Doubt.

Two or Three Fines Assessed Against Offenders.

The case against George Wilson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct on the premises of H. P. Lee, on Tenth street, was dismissed in the police court this morning.

Wilson denied being the man, and Miss Lee stated she was not certain he was the man she saw. He was therefore given the benefit of the doubt.

The case against E. F. Kirksey, charged with taking goods from his store and placing them for sale on the market was also dismissed. Chas. Sommer, for using insulting language towards Dick Rosenthal, was fined $3 and costs.

John Fritz and a man named Davis were fined $5 and costs each for drunkenness.

FALL HEIRS TO FORTUNES.

Three Residents of Paducah Come Into $10,000 Each.

Mrs. Harry Young and Miss Tillie and Mr. Chas. Potts the Lucky Ones.

Mrs. Harry Young, of West Clark street, Miss Tillie Potts, and Mr. Chas. Potts, of the city have fallen heir to $10,000 through the death of an aunt, Mrs. Mildred Carr, of Davies county. Joe Potts, of Louisville, also falls heir to a similar amount.

Charles Potts formerly lived with his aunt, Mrs. J. A. Crady, at 2428 West Broadway, Louisville, but left several weeks ago for Paducah to live. He was employed for a while at the distillery of J. B. Wathen & Bro. Company. Joe Potts is in Illinois.

CAUFIELD SUES AGAIN.

This Time He Asks for $15,000 Against a Newspaper.

C. I. Caufield, clerk of the Eddyville penitentiary, who also has suits pending against the governor and sinking fund commissioners for attempt to remove him from office without cause, yesterday filed suit in the Lyon circuit court, through his attorney, Sam C. Molloy, for $15,000 damages against the Louisville "Post" for libel. The paper, through its Eddyville correspondent, had stated that Caufield was short in his accounts.

BIG TOBACCO SALES

Good Tobacco Brought Good Prices Today.

The tobacco sales today were among the largest known here. At Graham & Farmer's warehouse up to noon over 160 hogsheads had been sold, bringing from $6 to $19. It was estimated that over 200 hogsheads would be sold before sales closed.

Call On Mr. F. Kamleiter.

Your many friends, as well as many others, request the use of your name as a candidate for mayor. We know from your honest straightforward methods, your high character, and your upright dealings and we know from the success you have made in life that you would make us a good mayor. Being greatly in need of one of these kind, we beg you to early accede to our wishes.

MANY CITIZENS.

HOT SHOTS.

The Temperature Was 100 Degrees Today.

MUCH SUFFERING EVERYWHERE.

Natives of Fisherville Sleep in Hammocks—Death in Illinois.

NOTES OF THE HOT SPELL.

The maximum temperature today was 100 degrees in the shade. This is three or four degrees less than the highest point reached this year, but a great many people think today was the hottest of the year, and many suffered from the heat. The temperature in some places was really as much as 105 in the shade, however. Stock as well as men felt the effects of it, and more than one horse fell in the street today. The indications this afternoon were for rain.

The residents of Fisherville have hit on a somewhat novel plan for spending the sultry nights without suffering from heat, at least without having to suffer as some of the other citizens of Paducah do.

About a dozen families of the little southern suburb have swung hammocks in the trees, and sleep in them. The heat is not near so intolerable in these hammocks, but the mosquitoes are said to be annoying. The hammocks are decidedly an innovation in the neighborhood, and are about the only ones to be found stretched from tree tops in the city. They have attracted no little attention.

Few people could sleep last night. The parks did a big business, and many could be seen setting around on the porches and in the yards as late as 2 o'clock trying to keep cool. Scarcely a breath of air stirred.

Louis Gilston, of near Stringtown, Ill., died yesterday of sunstroke. He was overcome while driving his horses, and fell from his wagon. The deceased was 40 years old, and leaves a wife and several children. The remains were interred today.

Frank Willoughby, a white man employed at the Hoffman Lumber Company's mills, four miles from the ferry landing on the opposite side of the river, fell from sunstroke yesterday and came near dying before he could be revived. Today he was reported better with good chances of recovery.

Overcome By Heat.

John Kace, a watchman for the Illinois Coal Company, was overcome by heat at Ninth and Broadway yesterday afternoon and carried to the City Hospital.

Mr. Frank Augustus, who had been hauling sawdust, was prostrated in Glauber's stable yesterday afternoon, but had today about recovered.

LINCOLN, N. J., is strictly up-to-date. On July 5th it chose its new city council and as a result of the election one half the new Board will be women.

A. P. A.-ism is not in it when Cupid takes a hand. On Monday in Toledo, a Mr. Jas. D. Batsh, state secretary of the A. P. A. of Ohio, married a Catholic lady. Of course the A. P. A.'s were scandalized, but the young man says he will leave the order, and cease to worry about Catholic uprisings.

THERE is to be an election of a state senator this fall. This is an opportunity for the election of a sound money man. This district is composed of McCracken, Ballard, Marshall and Carlisle counties. There are now in the field a free silver Popocrat and a free silver Populist. We can elect a good man and never will have a better opportunity.

GEN. WEYLER has been outwitted again. He thought he would leave Havana and crush Gen. Garcia in the eastern part of the island. But when he did so, General Gomez marched toward Havana with 6,000 men and put himself between Weyler and that city, Weyler thus finding himself between two Cuban armies. So Weyler did as he has done before, he retreated.

Those Sound Money Democrats who are contemplating voting for Shackelford upon the idea that the money question is not involved in the coming election, should not forget that the convention that nominated the genial Sam Shackelford, first endorsed the Chicago convention and committed itself unreservedly to Bryanism and to all the other dangerous issues that are concealed in that platform. Don't play with fire, but cast your vote against the foe of sound money and stable government.

THERE is a vast deal of complaint because of the fact that certain portions of our streets are made muddy every day by too much sprinkling. The city council should pass an ordinance at once regulating this matter. It is for the interest of every one that the streets be sprinkled that the dust may be laid. But that is all; further than that it becomes a nuisance. Certain parts of our streets are veritable mud holes every night, while rarely laying the dust will suffice.

is fixing his salary as manager of his new co-operative scheme. Mr. Eugene V. Debs asks $1,200 per year and "expenses." Your labor leader and reformer always draws his salary; and is amply provided for all contingencies by the "expense" clause. But the poor devil who goes on a strike loses salary, expenses and all. President Ratchford can well afford to talk glibly about "ultimate success." He works on no conditional fee and he also has an expense allowance. They all do—except the striker. He holds the bag, while the cries of starving women and children strike remorse to his soul that he has been such a dupe as to go on a strike, but his remorse comes too late.

WHY DEBOE PAIRED.

Considerable comment has been occasioned because Senator Deboe paired on the all important whiskey tax question. Indeed some have gone so far as to say that the Senator has betrayed his trust.

For the benefit of those who want to know the truth about why Senator Deboe paired with Senator Bate on the whiskey tax vote we give Senator Deboe's explanation in his own words. He says:

"I was in favor of a reduction from $1.10 to 70 cents per gallon on whiskey. I made an earnest fight for said reduction, but as we were beaten in caucus, and having agreed before we entered caucus to stand by the result of my party in caucus assembled, so that the tariff bill may be speedily passed, I felt, like any other man of honor should feel, to either pair or vote according to the result of my party caucus. So I paired."

INJURING AMERICAN TRADE.

Director Smith, of the Bureau of American Republics, in a survey of the commercial relations of countries on this continent, says regarding the serious effect on West Indian trade with the United States during the past two years caused by the Cuban insurrection:

"Comparing the United States treasury figures for 1895 and 1896, we find that there was a falling off in one year of considerable more than $12,000,000 in imports from Cuba and of over $5,000,000 in exports to that island. Compared with 1894, the figures for 1896 show a reduction of over $25,000,000 in imports and of nearly $15,000,000 in exports. Under normal conditions, Cuba is almost entirely dependent upon the United States for a market for her products, and with a proper reciprocity arrangement its sales of manufactured there could be greatly increased. American capital invested in Cuba already aggregates a vast sum, and with the restoration of peace and order to the island the development of the interests of the United States there to great proportions would only be a question of time."

THE COW ORDINANCE.

The cow ordinance is unconstitutional, for Judge Bishop himself has said it; at least Judge Bishop has given as his opinion that such is the case. The opinion is a great one—lengthwise; but if it contains one single "legal" reason why the aforesaid ordinance is unconstitutional, one must read between the lines to find it.

At least one-third of the opinion is taken up with a description of a charming childhood scene, where the little ones are romping on the green sward, the beauties of which were so great that even the heart of the sheriff is represented as having been touched, and he stops and views the scene, while tender emotions fill his heart. Suddenly a buxom matron appears upon the arena, and simultaneously the cow question appears also; the lady vouchsafes a legal opinion in the form of an argumentum ad hominem in a most clear and unmistakable manner, as follows:

Lady: Are you the sheriff?

Sheriff: Yes madam, the deputy sheriff.

Lady: What has Judge Bishop done with the cow case?

Sheriff: It is not decided, he has it under advisement.

Lady: I have been told that he was inclined to decide the ordinance valid?

Sheriff: Yes madam, he said from the bench that he had found but one case directly in point, and that was from the supreme court of the state of Tennessee, where it was decided that a similar ordinance from the city of Chattanooga, in that state, was valid.

Lady: Well, I want you to tell Judge Bishop for me that I say, and I have sufficient muscular power for that purpose (rolling up her sleeves) if he should decide the ordinance valid and stop me from turning my cows out to feed on the commons so as to provide milk and butter for my babies here, I'll thrash him within an inch of his life the first time I meet him on the street.

The opinion proceeds to say:

It will be further seen that the ordinance forbids the owner of any cow from letting the same run at large in that part of the city of Paducah embraced within the following boundaries: Beginning at the foot of Tennessee street on the Tennessee river; thence west with Tennessee street to Tenth street; thence north with Tenth street to Trimble street; thence east with Trimble street to the Ohio river; thence with said river to Tennessee street. It will thus be noticed that it was intended by the city fathers to apply only to a part of the city, and while it may not appear on the face of the ordinance or in the agreed state of facts, yet the judge of this court is a resident of the city of Paducah and well acquainted with the district bounded in the ordinance as well as other portions of the city not within its prohibited territory which are finely and well improved with residences, inhabited with refined and cultured families, where the cow may run at large without violating any law. If the cow is a nuisance in any part of the city because she is filthy or destroys grass, shrubbery and flowers in the yards of residences, it is difficult to perceive why she would not also be a nuisance in any part of the city where the same result would follow her visits to the residences of the inhabitants.

Does not the learned judge miss the entire point. The ordinance does not say that the cow is not a nuisance outside the prescribed limits. It merely says that it is a nuisance within certain limits. In other words, the ordinance is nothing more or less than a police regulation. The council can prescribe fire limits, but fire is a terrible thing outside of those limits. The council has the right to restrict houses of ill fame to certain districts or to banish them entirely. It can prohibit a man from hitching his horse on lower Broadway, but can allow it on other streets. It does not now allow a horse to remain on Market square beyond a certain number of minutes. This morning an inspector ordered certain merchants to remove barrels from the streets in front of their stores, but according to Judge Bishop a cow has a perfect right to occupy any place she wants to on the streets.

Why cannot a frame house be rented within the fire limits? Is not this a free country and cannot a man do as he pleases with his own property. The reason is plain. A fire in certain limits is vastly more dangerous than in other parts of the city. More buildings and more lives are menaced. Hence the common law gives the council the right to protect the city by fire regulations.

It is the same with the cow ordinance. In certain limits are more dwellings, more people use the streets, more children are playing upon the pavements. In those limits a wandering cow is more of a nuisance than in other less densely populated parts of the city. It is not as the Judge suggests that the people in the given limits are more "cultured and refined." But this was probably injected into the opinion as humor.

The point is: Is or is not the cow ordinance a police or health regulation. That question the opinion avoids. His Honor furthermore adduces another reason in the following words: It will not be denied that if this ordinance is valid it ought to be enforced; to enforce it will require the service of officers; the officers will have to be paid. To enact it required the time, due consideration and services of the city council. As I understand the present city law, the members of that body must be paid for their services. By whom? The answer is, out of the city treasury, where all our revenues go. It is perfectly manifest that if the ordinance is to be enforced then we have the entire population of the city paying taxes for the exclusive benefit of the inhabitants of the favored district and to protect them from the ravages of the cow, while the protection and blessing of the law is denied to all outside of the boundaries, though similarly situated.

This argument if valid, holds good against the fire limits ordinance and against all expenditures of money that do not apply directly to each lot in town. The opinion says further "that it would be better to adhere rigidly to the doctrine of equality before the law of all men, that no law in Kentucky can be passed that does not give equal rights to all and exclusive privileges to none."

A TRAVESTY ON JUSTICE.

George Dinning Must Suffer For the "Crime" of Protecting His Home.

Expressions From Prominent Ministers on the Merits of the Case—A Principle Is at Stake.

Acting Governor Worthington is making himself famous by the generosity with which he deals out pardons. A case is now before him, however, in which a pardon will recognize a great principle and will bring honor to the gray haired executive. Geo. Dinning, a negro, is now at Eddyville, entering upon a term of seven years' imprisonment. Dinning's offense consisted in defending his home against a band of "regulators," who surrounded his hut at night and ordered him to come out. Dinning refused to obey and remained to defend his family. In doing so he fired, so it is said, the shot that killed one of the regulators, Dinning himself being wounded. For this he was tried and sentenced to a term of seven years. He was only a negro, had no influential friends, but he was only exercising that divine law that says that every man's house is his castle and he has a right to defend it. As the particulars of the case are becoming generally known, sympathy is being aroused everywhere for the unfortunate man whose color alone denied him the right in the eyes of the mob to protect his home and family. Let Governor Worthington act quickly and no mistake will be made.

NEED A LESSON. Speaking of this case the Louisville "Commercial" says:

"Mobs of lawless men have raided many portions of the state, and have become so bold as to laugh at the law. If a citizen of the commonwealth, even though he be a humble negro, is not upheld by the law in defending his home and family from the invasion of these bloodthirsty mobs of midnight assassins, it will embolden these bodies and serve to whet their appetites for more gore."

"Prompt action in the Dinning case would prove of incalculable importance in the way of showing the mobs that they can not invade the homes of citizens of the state and secure their conviction when they repel by force their assaults."

If Dinning is pardoned it will show people in the North and East that in Kentucky there is a chief executive who has the courage to see that a friendless negro obtains justice, even after a jury failed to return a fair verdict; that in Kentucky all citizens are treated alike.

WHAT THE MINISTERS THINK. Rev. John P. McFerrin, of Louisville, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, says:

"Every man has a right to defend himself, no matter what color he is or in what country he lives. 'In this country, at least, the colored man's rights ought to be respected along with the white man's. If the facts of the Dinning case have been reported correctly the negro was justified in defending himself. The mob that surrounded the negro's house was grossly in the wrong, no matter what their motive was for so doing. If the negro had done nothing to make himself amenable to the law, he should have been let alone. I think that the governor would by no means go amiss in exercising his clemency in this case.'"

Rev. Charles Craik, dean of Christ Church Cathedral, says:

"When I heard of Dinning's sentence I thought of writing acting Gov. Worthington in regard to pardoning the negro. If the act was not justifiable, there never was a case of self-defense justifiable. Mob rule is a stain to the state, and is even worse when it comes to prejudicing juries. He most certainly ought to be pardoned."

Rev. Adolph Moses, rabbi of Temple Adas Israel, said:

"Dinning ought certainly to be pardoned. He was either guilty of murder in the first degree, and ought to have been dealt with accordingly, or he ought to have been cleared. As it stands, the acting Governor ought to exercise his clemency. If Dinning had been a white man he would have been cleared on the evidence without question. The jury had no right to take in consideration the past character of the man. If he had done nothing which made him liable to the law he had done nothing that justified a mob attacking him in his own house. Hence he had a right to defend himself."

PADUCAH ARCHITECT.

Mr. B. B. Davis' Plans Adopted.

For the New School Building on West Broadway.

The board of education met in called session last night, all the members being present except Secretary Brian, who is out of the city. The meeting was called that the board meet with the building committee and consider the plans and specifications prepared by Architect Brinton B. Davis.

Mr. Davis' proposition was then read. It was to furnish the plans and superintend the work on the building, estimated to cost $28,650, for 2 per cent of the cost, or for 1 1/2 per cent additional should be superintend the construction.

A communication was read from a Cincinnati architect agreeing to furnish the plans for 3 per cent of the cost of the building.

After a lengthy discussion, participated in by Trustees Brooks, Terrell, Byrd, Leake and Jackson, and President Lang, the following motion, offered by Mr. Terrell, was adopted:

"That the plans presented by Mr. B. B. Davis be adopted, subject to any and all changes that this board may require without additional charge therefor by said Davis, and that when the specifications for this building are adopted by this board the said Davis is to be paid his two per cent, commission. Said Davis must execute a good and sufficient bond to be approved by this board in the sum of $1,000 guaranteeing and protecting this board against all errors of every kind in said plans and specifications and otherwise from any cause of him and his work and also fully guaranteeing to this board that this building will not cost more than $30,000. In the completion of plans and specifications said Davis is to render assistance to the superintendent appointed by this board sufficient to enable said superintendent to have building erected according to these plans and specifications."

The board adjourned.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

A new and pretty song is just out.

"Ask Your Heart the Question,"

the music of which was written by Prof. Chas. Gilbert, formerly of the city, but now of St. Louis. The words are by Mr. Dustin.

At a recent M. E. conference at Rockport, Ky., was an old preacher, a cousin of Mr. W. Fred Long, of the city, who had never seen a flash light picture taken.

On the last night of the conference

the weather was somewhat threatening. The old minister is mortally afraid of lightning, and a staunch disbeliever of the old saying that "lightning never strikes twice in the same place," because twice had lightning burned his barns, killing three mules and severely shocking a son on one occasion. The barn struck was of course different, but they were in the same place.

So on the last night of the conference,

when the preachers began to line up near the pulpit this old minister who was afraid of lightning did not know what it was for, but presently concluded that a storm was approaching and the ministers were trying by taking a firm stand, to set an example and prevent a panic. This idea was strengthened when the photographer touched off the apparatus, which the minister had not noticed.

"Oh Lord, take care of me!" he exclaimed as the room was illumined

by a blinding flash, and he dropped down on the floor. When he finally discovered that the house was still standing and nobody was hurt, he slowly arose, glanced at the smoke gracefully spreading out against the ceiling and murmured a fervent "I thank thee!"

Marsh Collins does a great deal of telegraphing. His bill for messages since he was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Marshall

Geary, has amounted to over $100.

Most of which he paid himself.

He was allowed $50 at the last council meeting for special police work. There is a fund consisting of $200 annually, set aside to be devoted to whatever the mayor and marshal desire in the way of secret police work. The council is required to allow it without asking any accounts. Marshal Collins, however, during his previous four years as marshal, did not use a cent of it, and this year has not used but $100 of it.

It is said that a local sport became disfavored with the way things terminated in a race at the fair grounds

Tuesday and compelled the "bookie" to return the money he had placed in the pool. A refusal on the part of the "bookie" might have precipitated bloodshed, but he knew his "biz," and it was prevented.

Another incident that occasioned some excitement was the cutting by some miscreant of the rubber in Mr.

Herman Wells' starting machine. It was practically disabled, and had the culprit been caught, an indeleb-le spot would be left on his memory of the eventful occasion.

While all good people were perspiring around trying to find a cool spot for the past two days, the worthy board of magistrates was at the county court house drawing per-diem for deliberating on how to keep warm next winter. As they examined bids on pipes for carrying so much

Liquid Frost.

Shows this evening or tonight; fair tomorrow.

LOCAL MENTION.

Race Horse Sold.
Mr. S. R. Rowan, of Livermore, Ky., who came here with a string of horses for the races, sold "Jessie," his running horse, to Mr. W. R. Whitesides, of Tunnel Hill, Ill., yesterday for $750. Jessie won the running race Monday.

Died in Evansville.
Mr. Henry Lahr, formerly of the city, where he was agent for one of the brewery companies, died a day or two since in Evansville of consumption.

Important Notice.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the firms of Rogers & King and John Rogers & Son are hereby warned to call and settle the same at once at my office, No. 127 South Fourth street, and thereby save to themselves costs, as I will be forced to proceed by law to collect same, unless otherwise settled promptly.

Ed H. Pryor, Receiver of Rogers & King and John Rogers & Son.

A Legal Change.

Attorney Harris has withdrawn from the firm of Harris & Crice and gone into Attorney R. T. Lightfoot's office.

Rev. Penrod Better.

Rev. W. K. Penrod, of the First Baptist church, was overcome by heat at La Belle park day before yesterday, and for a while was very ill. Today, however, he is better.

Notice.

I have some fine building lots that I will exchange for Mechanics & L. stock.

Lost.

On Sixth street, between Clark and Broadway, or on Broadway, between Sixth and Stutz's restaurant, a pearl pendant with diamond center. Finder will be rewarded for returning to this office.

This is good weather for ice cream freezers, and M. E. Jones has them lower than ever offered. Corner 2d and Court streets.

Bidders, Notice.

From now until Saturday night, at my store in Mechanicsburg, I will receive bids for cleaning the vaults at the county court house and jail from now until January 1st, 1898. The county will furnish a wagon for the use of the contractor. Contractors will be required to furnish bond.

R. S. Barnett, J. P. M. C.

The national Democrats, or in other words, all Democrats who are opposed to the 16 to 1 fallacy, will meet at the county court house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to appoint delegates to the state convention in Louisville on the 14th of July to nominate a candidate for the clerkship court of appeals.

Must Have Played Bad.

A very saucy and impudent negro named Wright came out from Paducah and evidently thought he would "cuss" this town off of the map, says the Mayfield Democrat, but he missed a cog. With a bulldozing look and a lot of his home town gall he threatened to whip Bob Williams, Monday. Yes, it was all over then—nine dollars—paid it and left town.

We must get rid of our screen doors, ice cream freezers, water coolers, refrigerators. Now is the time to buy at less than ever offered before.

M. E. Jones, Corner 2d and Court Sts.

ELLIS, RUDY & PHILLIPS

Dermatine...

Contains some of the oldest drugs known to man, yet the application of them is the newest thing under the sun. Have you used it for heat? Stops that burning, itching annoyance that kept you awake last night at once. It sells for 25 cents.

McPherson's 4th & Broadway

Money refunded if it does not cure.

Dr. Edwards, Specialty, Eyes, Ears, Nose and Throat, Paducah, Ky. 1y

Only a few more "Wonder" freezers left. Call and get one at Han's Bros. & Jones.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss LaFayette LaHeist to Mr. Lathrop Tracy Reid appears in this issue to take place in September says the Cloverport "News." The marriage of this popular couple has been expected for some time but important friends could not induce them to confirm the rumor. The prospective bride is one of the prettiest girls in town, and her sweet gentle disposition places her on the list of friends of all her acquaintances; and she is admired and esteemed by all. Lathrop Tracy Reid (known better by his fellow friends as "Fatty") is to be highly complimented for securing such an elegant young lady. Well, nothing can be said too good of "Fatty," he is the cleverest most accommodating mortal that ever drew breath. His home is in Bucyrus, Ohio, but since the construction of the Texas road, has been acting in the capacity of an engineer. During his residence in this city he has won the respect and the friendship of all.

Miss LaHeist was recently a guest of Miss Ora Leigh, and won many admirers here by her charming manner and cultivated voice.

Sudhoff Pitched a Good Game—Dowling Pitches Today.

GENERAL NEWS OF THE DIAMOND.

The Couches Couches were defeated yesterday on local grounds by the Indians. Pears' men won easily by a score of 6 to 4. Petty was in the box for Cairo and Sudhoff for Paducah, and thirteen hits were made off Petty and ten off Sudhoff.

The crowd was very small. Stanton umpired the game. Stanton played third for Paducah and Clifford caught two innings, but split his thumb in the third, and Noonan was put behind the bat, and Melvane sent out to right field. The home boys did good batting, and played fast ball. The second game will be played today. After these three games, Paducah leaves for fifteen days, twelve games to be played before she returns.

There was to have been a meeting of the directors of the Paducah Base-ball Association this forenoon at President Einstein's office, but owing to the inability of Mr. Clarence Quigly to attend, the meeting was postponed. Matters of great importance are to be considered.

This afternoon a fairly large crowd is out to witness the second game with Cairo.

Dowling and Noonan and Kostal and Grimm will be the batteries, and Charlie Schlemm, who umpired yesterday's game, will umpire today and tomorrow.

UNHAPPY UNIONS

Two Divorce Suits Filed Here Today.

Abandonment the Alleged Cause in Each Case.

Mrs. Mary E. Eccles today filed suit in the circuit court against her husband, Charles I. Eccles for divorce. They were married in January, 1895, and she abandoned her the following April. She asks for a restoration to her maiden name, Mary E. Hill.

Mrs. Minnie McGuire, of Broadway, today filed suit in the circuit court against Michael J. McGuire for divorce. She alleges they were married in 1895 he abandoned her, taking all the money laid up, $1100. He is a railroad yard foreman, and earns good wages. She asks for $50 a month alimony for the support of herself and children, and an absolute divorce.

NEWS NOTES.

The Texas railroad has sold 170 tickets to the Nashville Exposition from Owensboro.

Silom Church, in Greenup county, was struck Tuesday by lightning and completely wrecked.

DeKalb Junction, N. Y., was almost wiped out fire Tuesday night. Twenty buildings were burned.

Moses Kahn, of Paris, shipped this week twenty-five carloads of live export cattle over the Louisville & Nashville from Paris to New York.

Robert Glenn claims that his eight-year-old son was abducted from his home in Henderson by an unknown man and taken south.

Lemuel W. Melson was hanged at Grant's Pass, Ore., Friday for the murder of Charles Perry, in March, 1890. Melson was a Kentuckian, forty-two years of age.

Employees in the office of Marshal James propose to see if civil service law is of any value as a shield from the new marshal's official ax.

The Grand Dictators and Grand Reporters of the Knights of Honor are in session at Nashville for the purpose of revising the insurance rates in compliance with the action of the Supreme Lodge.

New Orleans distanced Louisville in the contest for the 1898 reunion of the Elks. The vote was 143 for New Orleans and 67 for Louisville, with scattering votes for other cities.

It is estimated by the treasury department that Secretary Gage's proposition to tax refined sugar, to be produced from existing stocks of raw sugar, imported prior to the passage of the tariff bill, would yield over $14,000,000 of revenue within the next six or eight months.

A scarcity of rations caused a general outbreak yesterday among the soldiers at Camp A. J. Gross. Two members of Company B are missing and already one private is guarding the interior of the guard house. The heat still interferes with the drilling.

Lost.

A brown tissue paper package containing five set rings, on Broadway between Third and Fifth. Return to this office and a suitable reward will be paid.

The national Democrats, or in other words, all Democrats who are opposed to the 16 to 1 fallacy, will meet at the county court house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to appoint delegates to the state convention in Louisville on the 14th of July to nominate a candidate for the clerkship court of appeals.

Just received another shipment of water coolers. Will sell very low.

SPLENDID OPPORTUNITIES FROM NOW UNTIL THE TENTH OF AUGUST...

Summer Clearing Sale Prices.

For several years we have made from July 4 to August 10 a period in which we offer the public unusual opportunities to purchase goods at much below their real value. This year, from now until August 10 we shall try to outdo all of our former years' efforts in conducting our summer clearing sale. Goods that do not sell promptly the first week will be further reduced the second week and again the third, and so on until sold or given away. We have bought thousands of dollars' worth of goods at great sacrifices especially for the sale, and will give the public the benefit.

We don't handle shoddy—we don't give room to unreliable goods. Our large business has been built up by selling good goods, and we guarantee the goods in this sale to be reliable quality, attractive styles and dependable in every respect.

Special price list will be mailed on application. A large detailed price list will appear in the weekly edition of this paper the 8th and in the daily of the 10th. Our regular limited space in this paper will carry a partial list of special bargains, beginning Monday, July 12, which will be changed from time to time as the changes in stocks and prices require it. All customers calling this week will find special great bargains throughout the stock.

HARBOUR'S.

112-114 North Third Street.

A CARD

To the Stockholders of the Paducah Building Trust Company.

The special meeting of the full Board of Directors having just closed you are doubtless anxious to know what effect the panic in building and loan circles has had and will have upon our company. Naturally applications for withdrawal have been considerable. But we have asked no quarter and for nearly six months the receipts have been largely used to pay withdrawals. This policy we deemed preferable to making loans with the receipts, both because it demonstrated our ability and willingness to pay our obligations and also because in every instance the profits voluntarily forfeited by the panic-stricken stockholders were more than we could possibly have made for the persistent stockholder by making loans. The result is that although our assets have been somewhat decreased, we yet have over $250,000 of assets, and are enabled to declare a largest dividend for the last six months than ever before in the history of the company.
